

THE DEATH RECORD.

Those Who Have Answered the Final Summons.

MRS. J. F. BEEGLE,

Mrs. W. H. Crouse, J. W. Elder, W. K. Le-
croze, Mrs. Diana Clouser, Mrs. W. D.
Hull, Mrs. Margaret Bush.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beegle, wife of Joseph F. Beegle, of Friends Cove, died on April 1, 1900, aged seventy-eight years, two months and twenty-one days. The maiden name of the deceased was Elizabeth Frantz. She was born in Garrett county, Md., on January 10, 1822. She is survived by two brothers and two sisters—Jonathan Frantz, of Braddock; William Frantz, of Smithfield; Mrs. Harry Speiker, of Confluence; and Mrs. Austin Speiker, of Accident, Md. In the year 1859 she was united in marriage to Joseph F. Beegle, who also survives her, and is now in his eighty-ninth year. After their marriage, like thoughtful and prudent persons, they realized the great and responsible duties of the marriage relation and their inability to perform those duties without divine grace and help, so in the following year—1860—they both joined the Evangelical Lutheran church. Mrs. Beegle has been a most devoted member for sixty years. Her religion was not of the demonstrative or spasmodic kind, but of the New Testament type, which manifested itself in a faithful use of the means of grace and in daily discharge of Christian duty in the home, in the community and in the church. She had the great satisfaction and consolation of seeing all her children united with the church, also all of her grandchildren of mature age.

Four daughters and two sons survive her, namely: Mrs. Andrew Bidle, of Koonitzville; Mrs. Valentine Reubard, of Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Frank Brightbill, of Bedford; Mrs. Thomas F. Smouse, of Cumberland, Md.; Frederick, of Bedford township, and Francis, on the home place in Friends Cove. Twenty-four grandchildren and three great grandchildren also mourn her departure. The funeral services were held on Tuesday at St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church, in the presence of a large gathering of sympathizing relatives and friends, and were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. W. Klinge, assisted by Rev. J. W. Reese, a former pastor.

Mrs. W. H. Crouse.

Mrs. William H. Crouse died at her home in Bedford township, a short distance north-west of the fair grounds, Tuesday morning. Her maiden name was Rebecca C. Leonard. She was a daughter of John and Barbara Leonard and was born in Bedford township July 13, 1815. In the fall of 1870 she was united in marriage to William H. Crouse. To this union seven children were born, all of whom are still living, namely: Mrs. Elsie Lang, of Huntingdon county; Maggie, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Edith Wright, of McKeesport; Michael, of Allegheny county; Edie, William and Lucy, at home. The following brothers and sisters also survive her: Adam and John Leonard, in the west; Jacob Leonard, of Fossilville; George Leonard, of Ohio; Mrs. Catharine Lopes, of Westmoreland county; and Mrs. William Ward, of Huntingdon county. Funeral services will be held in the Catholic church, of which decedent was a member, this morning at ten o'clock. Interment in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Crouse was a devoted wife, a kind mother and a good neighbor.

Mrs. W. H. Crouse.

On March 29, 1900, Joseph Warren Elder, of Buffalo Mills, answered the final summons. He was aged seventy years, five months and eighteen days. Mr. Elder was born in the old fort, generally known as the store house, four miles north of Centreville, Cumberland Valley township, and in 1830, with his father, moved to Buffalo Mills, where he has since resided. He was the oldest of a family of ten children, five of whom are still living. On April 2, 1863, he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Elizabeth Younklin by Rev. Joseph Hannenberg, at Schellsburg. His wife and two children survive him—Mrs. William H. Elliott, of Yuma, Ariz., and Warren Peatleider Elder, of Columbus, O. Mr. Elder was an upright citizen, respected by all. Though not a member of any church, he was strictly moral and was actuated by Christian principles. Funeral services were held at his home on April 1, conducted by Rev. G. W. Stroup, of West End, assisted by Rev. W. A. Lepley, of Schellsburg. Interment was made in the family cemetery located on the home place.

Joseph W. Elder.

Albert Ray Powell died at the home of his father, William Powell, of Saxton, on Tuesday. The deceased was aged fourteen years, two months and twelve days.

Albert R. Powell.

William Cuppert, of New Paris, died on Monday. He was aged about eighty years and is survived by his wife and six children.

William Cuppert.

A sad accident—The eleven-year-old daughter of A. L. Lyons, of Bedford, met with a serious accident Tuesday evening. Mary and her little brother, Simon, went into the parlor to play the piano. They locked the door and took the key from the lock. While moving the lamp Simon let it fall, igniting the oil. Mary tried to put out the flames with her dress, which caught fire. As the door was locked and the key missing, the child jumped through the window to the porch. Clarence Fletcher, who happened to be coming past the house, hastened to her relief and succeeded in smothering the fire, but not until after Mary was severely burned. Her injuries are very serious, but it is hoped they may not prove fatal.

False Alarm.

Tuesday noon a report came, from some source, that the county assessor's house was burning. In a few minutes "Had" Hafer was ready with a team, and in company with G. C. Hawkins, Sr., was the first on the road to render such assistance as it would be possible to give in case the building was on fire; but happily before reaching the house they found it to be a false alarm. There was quite an excitement along the road leading to the farmhouse, and in town, until Messrs. Hafer and Hawkins returned and stated the facts.

FURNITURE FACTORY

At Hyndman Totally Destroyed By Fire

TUESDAY MORNING.

The Three-Story Building, With Its Immense Stock of Finished Lumber, Furniture and Machinery, Burned.

Special to GAZETTE.

HYNDMAN, April 3. The most disastrous fire in the history of Hyndman occurred on Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock, when the huge three-story frame furniture factory of the Hyndman Lumber and Manufacturing company, with its immense stock of finished lumber, furniture and valuable machinery, was totally destroyed. The fire started in the finishing department on the second story far away from the engine room and was most likely caused by spontaneous combustion.

The flames were first seen by William Mellett, the night watchman at the mill, who was making one of his regular trips about the premises. Mr. Mellett promptly sounded an alarm by blowing the big whistle and then used all available means to prevent the spread of the flames. A large crowd soon arrived on the scene; the borough fire apparatus was speedily procured and as there was an abundant supply of water on the premises the employees of the concern under the direction of their foreman, W. H. Reinhardt, and Superintendent John W. Moore, of the Hyndman Water company, soon had several large streams playing on the fiery element. After working like heroes for twenty minutes the firefighters were encouraged to think that their efforts would be successful and a large portion of the building and contents saved; but just at this juncture the hose burst in several places, causing a decrease in the water supply for about five minutes, during which time the fate of the immense building was sealed.

After this the men directed their attention to the large dry kilns, office and lumber piles, all of which were saved after a hard fight of several hours. The fire was a magnificent sight, lighting up the country for miles around and being clearly seen at Sand Patch, twenty miles west of the town.

The firm employed fifty-three men, and being rushed with orders, the plant was operated to its full capacity. It has not been decided whether the establishment will be rebuilt.

The loss is approximately estimated at $300,000. Insurance, $24,000.

WHY A RECEIVER

Was Appointed For the Baltimore B. & L. Association.

The following explanation for the appointment of a receiver for the Baltimore Building and Loan association, as announced in these columns last week, is offered by F. C. Slingsuff, of Baltimore, general counsel for the association:

"A few days ago the court of appeals of this state handed down an opinion in the case of White vs. the Baltimore Building & Loan association, deciding that the premium which the borrowing stockholders agreed to pay was usurious and could not be collected by the association. As the whole scheme of the association was based on advances to its shareholders for premiums agreed to be paid, this decision destroyed the assets to such an extent as to make the association insolvent and unable to carry out the objects and purposes of its incorporation. A bill was filed by some of the shareholders in the circuit court of the United States in Baltimore, alleging that the decision of the court of appeals had reduced the assets of the association to the point of insolvency, and asking for the appointment of a receiver to wind up its affairs."

"The board of directors having found the appointment of a receiver imperative, they took the interest of all the shareholders to agree to this appointment at once, instead of entering upon a litigation which could only result in the wasting of assets, and consented to the appointment of Bird M. Robinson, Judge Morris, who presided over the court when the bill was filed, took this view of the case and had appointed Mr. Robinson receiver, and he has given a $100,000 bond and entered in the discharge of his duties. Under an order passed by Mr. Judge Morris all of the shareholders, including the borrowers, will have to file their claims for adjustment with the association in the United States court of Baltimore."

Reception to Dr. and Mrs. Miller.

The reception given to Rev. Dr. A. R. Miller and wife in the M. E. church Friday evening is another demonstration of the fact that the Epworth League never does anything by halves. An excellent musical and literary programme was well rendered and refreshments were served. Prof. Edward S. Ling, in behalf of the League, the Sunday school and the church cordially welcomed Dr. and Mrs. Miller to Bedford. Dr. Miller responded in a pleasing speech in which he referred to his former pastorate here and asked the people to cooperate with him in his work.

He and his family will occupy one of William Biebs' houses on West Pitt street. Mr. Straub has been successfully conducting two large stores—one at New Baltimore and the other at New Buena Vista—for some time. All of the goods now on hand at these places will be closed out and Mr. Straub will open his Bedford store with an entirely new line of dry goods, notions, books, shoes and groceries. He is an experienced merchant, clear-headed, far-sighted, up-to-date in his business methods and will, no doubt, meet with success here. SOME SUGGESTIONS

Regarding A Public Library For Bedford.

ALL SHOULD AID

In Promoting The Value of Books—An Important Movement—What One Citizen Is Willing To Give.

EDITOR GAZETTE—I do not think that there is any more honorable or praiseworthy act (outside of the church) than to bring before the public the wants of a community. What we want, and what we need, is a public library. What should prevent anyone, male or female, old and young, from giving a helping hand to make such an undertaking a success? True, like everything else, there are those who, for certain reasons of their own, will oppose it, but their number is very small.

There are in the town hundreds of volumes and interesting papers that no doubt would be a great benefit to some one, if they had the privilege to read their pages. These are stored away in neglected closets and lofts, and are of no intrinsic value to the owners. Who would refuse to give, at least a portion, of their often read volumes to start such an institution as a public library? We have no Carnegie, nor have we any Waukegan in this town, yet all who would contribute and help support with their mite, are equal to either one of them, as far as starting and supporting a public library.

Now, Mr. Editor, as I believe you are the first one to bring this subject before the public, you will pardon me for making a few suggestions at this early date. Some think that no public enterprise can be gotten up without calling a town meeting. I think that three times out five such meetings prove a fizzle.

Therefore, I suggest that you prepare a paper so that each one who is favorable to starting and will help maintain a library, either by cash or donation of books, may sign the same at your office; also at the same time name five or seven persons for trustees, these trustees to elect one of their number for president, another for treasurer; also to appoint one outside of the board as librarian, who shall also act as secretary. The board to have power to make all rules necessary for the protection of books and governing the library.

I would also suggest if the formation of a library is a success, and a suitable room procured with necessary furniture, that it be kept open every day in the week from 3 to 10 o'clock p. m., except Sunday, when it shall be open from 3 to 6 p. m., and the ladies desire it, one evening in the week shall be for their exclusive use. I merely make the above suggestions that they may be greatly improved. A friend of mine, after reading your article in the Gazette, told me that he did not like to be the first one to make a move in what he considered a great and good thing, but he would give what he was able for that purpose, $9.50 in cash and 10 volumes. Now, let a number of our citizens go ten or twenty times better.

An Important Movement.

In the last number of THE GAZETTE there appeared an article advocating the establishment of a library in Bedford. It is an important movement which we believe will meet with the approbation of the citizens generally. It may be said of books, that they are the atmosphere which supply to the mind that food without which it cannot grow and develop.

While nature has furnished this delightful region with an air which invigorates and feeds the body, she has left it to the citizens to supply the other need of man's complex nature, viz: the food of the mind. All our large cities are vying with each other in the establishment and development of libraries, and many of the towns are not behind the cities in their efforts in this direction. Some of our millionaires who have drawn large stores from the learning bosom of this rich state have added with some crumbs from their overburdened tables. And now the question comes before us, Shall not we add to the attractions of this favored town by supplying the long felt want of a library of good books and periodical literature? We trust steps will soon be taken to carry out this important work.

WELL WISHER.

"Too Much" Clerk.

Business in the county commissioners' office this week was not conducted with the usual despatch and smoothness. Cause: "Too much" clerk. Both Dorsey S. Ling and Aaron Garber are claiming the position—for reasons which have already been published in this paper. The commissioners met on Monday and Attorney Garber presented the bond of Mr. Bidle, who gave as his security the Philadelphia and Erie company, of Maryland. Mr. Bidle, Commissioners Hooker and Baker accepted the bond, despite the protests of Commissioner Ego, who claimed that the bond should not be received at this time because the commissioners already had a clerk and the question of the clerkship should be decided before they accept any more bonds. On Wednesday Messrs. Hooker and Baker asked Mr. Ling for the combination of the safe, some books, keys, etc., which were given to them. The board adjourned on Wednesday afternoon and will meet again next Tuesday. What the outcome of the contest may be is a matter for conjecture.

Democrats Win in Kansas City, Mo.

Full returns from the election in Kansas City, Mo., on Tuesday, give James A. Reed, Democrat, for mayor, a majority of 1,137 over H. Brown, Jr., Republican. The Democrats elected Dr. Edgar H. S. and J. W. L. as members of the lower house. Two years ago the Republicans carried the city by 1,439 majority.

Of Interest To Saloon-Keepers.

Judges Wilson and Bettler, of Philadelphia, have decided that it is an infraction of the law for a saloon-keeper to sell liquor to a person addicted to drink, even when he is sober.

Judge Stewart, of Franklin county, has decided that the statement of a minor that he is of age is no excuse for selling him liquor.

ALL WASHINGTON

Laughs At Senator Pettus' Humorous Speech.

THE GEORGIA STATESMAN

Holds Senator Beveridge Up To Ridicule—The Democrats Will Oppose the Naval Appropriation Bill.

Special correspondence to THE GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The senate and all Washington are still laughing, and are likely to be for days to come, at the humorous speech of Senator Pettus, in which he held Senator Beveridge, a would-be Demagogue, up to ridicule for his speech declaring his opposition to the Puerto Rican bill and his intention to vote for it. The senate and galleries were in a continuous roar of laughter from the beginning to the end of the remarks of Senator Pettus. After rubbing it in on Beveridge for charging all those who didn't agree with him with enmity toward the government, Mr. Pettus said: "The government in his mind is—'My old man and his wife—'—And no more."

Mr. Pettus told this Biblical story at the close of his speech: "The Master once had to select a man to Woodbury Splinters. APRIL 4.—Miss Lizzie Simpson has been quite sick during the past two weeks.

The Woodbury creamery is doing far beyond what had been expected by our countrymen, the farmers are also gratified with the results they are getting from their milk.

The German Baptist church above town is undertaking repairs generally.

We had a great many sales this spring, which were well attended and things brought good prices. The grist of fittings was the largest that has been here for many years.

DO IT YOURSELF

And Save a Doctor's Fee—If Test Denotes Kidney Trouble Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the Only Medicine That Will Positively Cure You.

It is easy to tell whether your Kidneys or bladder are diseased. Take a bottle of glass tumbler and fill it with urine. It is a sediment—a powderlike substance—after standing a day and night, if it is pale or discolored, rosy or stringy, there is something wrong with the kidneys. Other sure signs of disease are a desire to urinate often, pain in the back, or if your urine stains linen.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best for the kidneys. It is a powerful diuretic, and it is a powerful blood purifier. It is a powerful cathartic, and it is a powerful tonic. It is a powerful remedy for all kidney troubles.

George McFarlin moved from this place to New Paris yesterday and John Horner will move into the house vacated by McFarlin to-day. It is reported that Mr. Horner will run a butcher wagon to Windber this summer.

C. P. Smith and Wesley McCleary, of Windber, said this community is flying into on Sunday.

Eliza Snowberger is getting lumber saved for a wagon shed and corn crib on March 13 some twelve or fifteen of the neighbors of W. W. Slick took possession of his residence and proceeded to build a handsome quilt and get dinner. The surprise was for Mrs. Missouri Ickes, a daughter of Mr. Slick, who, with her husband, Samuel Ickes, will go to housekeeping at Cessna in a few weeks. The surprise, as well as the dinner, was a success. All had a good time.

On March 27 the sisters and friends of George W. Ferguson and wife gathered at his residence near Mielertown with a quilt and provisions and were surprised to find Mr. Ferguson and wife busy getting ready to move on Wednesday. They soon had the quilting and dinner in operation and finished both and helped the family to get ready for the fitting on Wednesday.

These present were Mr. and Mrs. William Barst, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Ferguson, Mrs. Hannah Miller, Mrs. Fred Berkeimer, Mrs. Elly Blackburn, Mrs. Benj. Lohr, Mrs. Carrie Bower and son, Mrs. Bally Custer, Mrs. Laura Custer, Mrs. Charles Wolf, Mrs. James Allen, Mrs. Sarah Wolf, Mrs. Lonia Strueman and daughter Jessie, Misses Carrie Hamaker, Mary Lohr, Katie Lohr, Myrtle Lohr, Mary Blackburn, Myrtle Blackburn, Dessie Blackburn, Sally Wolf, May Wolf, Annie Wolf, Myrtle Ferguson, Messrs. Lewis Custer, Ed Struckman, Willie Ferguson, Mr. Ferguson and wife were completely surprised and are thankful to all concerned for the handsome gift.

Joseph E. Thropp, candidate for the nomination for congress, and Capt. H. W. Cook, his right hand man, passed through this place on Monday to New Paris, where he made a speech to a few ardent supporters and some who are not supporters.

"Slocum" was seen wearing a high silk hat yesterday and the query among the people is, where did he get it? He was never seen wear a hat of that kind until after Mr. Thropp's visit to this place.

Our roads are in a terrible condition, at places almost impassable. It will be hard on our supervisors, as it is almost impossible to get the roads in order while the heavy hauling from some five or six saw-mills continues.

There was born to Samuel and Missouri Ickes on March 3: a son and "Grandpa" Slick is as happy as a big sunflower.

BOOKER. St Clairsville.

APRIL 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hull and Miss Lizzie Ickes are guests of Mrs. Amanda Shroyer.

John James, of Rainburg, and son Pleasant, of Bedford, were with the former's sister, Mrs. Maria Amick, over Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Pearson were at Pleasantville last week, as guests of Samuel Whitaker.

A special collection was raised by the Lutherans of Rev. Pearson's charge for the sufferers from the famine in India. Here is the amount raised:

St. John's, Cessna $30.00
Messiah, Cessna $23.35
St. Peter's, St. Clairsville $40.35

Making a total of $103.50. This is an excellent showing for the Lutherans. Much credit is due to the pastor—Rev. E. P. Pearson—for his untiring efforts.
